

Music Exams

The Associated Board of the Royal Schools of Music Exams took place just before the end of last term but we had to wait until the first day of this term to hear the results. They were definitely worth waiting for! Pupils took exams in singing, flute, violin, piano, clarinet and trombone. Everyone passed with safe margins, 8 passed with merit and 5 with distinction. We had our youngest ever trombone pupil (Ellie Nielsen J5) and an excellent (despite a heavy cold!) pass with merit at Grade 6 for Sheona Dorrian in the Upper Sixth – worth a very useful 40 UCAS points. Well done to all the candidates for their hard work and enthusiasm, to their teachers for all their expertise and faith and to the parents for their support and encouragement.
