

Weekly News Friday 6th January 2017

We have had 10 new pupils join us this term. We would like to welcome them and hope that they all enjoy their time at Longridge.

Carol Service

Thank you to everyone that gave so generously at the Carol Service. £283.00 was raised for the British Heart Foundation. This cause was chosen in memory of former pupil Alex Watson, who sadly passed away on the 27th November, aged 30.

Art

Form 2 Landscape Project - Artist books

by Henry Mosley

by Mary Miles

by Lucy Harris

Science

The U6 have started the topic of ecosystems and today investigated the stored chemical energy in a variety of food stuffs e.g. crisps, dry biscuits. They burnt food and noted by how much a known volume of water increased in temperature.

Bus Operations in Adverse Weather

In the event of adverse weather conditions or if the school is not opening or a bus is not running, we will post a message on the School website and we will tweet via twitter: @LongridgeTowers by 7.00am.

If at any time during the start of a school run, a school minibuss driver feels that the conditions are unsafe for the operation of the minibuss he will contact the parents of each child on his run and then return to school.

Staff News

We would like to congratulate Mrs Peters (PE Teacher) and her husband Jamie on the arrival of Orla Elizabeth Jane Peters, born on 5th January at 7.26am and weighing 8lb 7oz. We hope they don't have too many sleepless nights!

Singers! Musicians! Take your music to the next level!

Inspired – The creative school for young musicians is recruiting new talent now. Guided by producers Iain Petrie and Anna Emmins, you will learn how to write a song, have it produced to the highest quality, realised on a CD and learn how to raise your game as a performer and as an all-round musician. Places are limited, so to book an audition and find out more, visit www.inspired.co.uk
