

Below are a whole host of VE Day related activities for J1 and J2 which you can pick and choose from on VE Day.

Have fun and find out more about why we commemorate such an important day in British history.

To Get Things Started... Have you got up and dressed in red white and blue, the colours of the Union Jack today? VE Day Assembly Start your day by watching a VE Day assembly to find out more about why we commemorate this special day. (LTS website/Junior page/Home School/Videos) In the video file you will also see a link to video where you can hear Mrs Bullen reading 'Where the Poppies Now Grow'	Stay at Home Street Party Plan an afternoon picnic in the garden (maybe bake some WW2 goodies using recipes from the Home School area of the School website). Create your own red, white and blue bunting and decorations for your table. At 3.00pm join in 'The Nation's Toast to the Heroes of World War 2'. Raise a glass of your favourite drink and say, 'To those who gave so much, we thank you.' Please send photos of your street party to Mrs Bullen@ sbullen@lts.org.uk	Remembering Games ... During the war, children often played Hopscotch, Jump Rope and Four Squares. Indoors they played Jacks, card games or marbles. For Hopscotch, you could use chalk to create a Hopscotch grid or you could use sheets of paper with numbers on.
Morse Code Morse code was used in WW2 as a method of communication. It is simply a code that assigns dots and dashes to each alphabet letter. Can you use the Morse Code (Home School area of website) to crack the coded words and then place the words you have made in the correct space on the Morse Code answer sheet? Watch a Morse Code machine being used	Make Do and Mend In World War 2 there was a desperate shortage of materials to make clothes from. People were urged to 'make do and mend.' Do you have any old clothes or accessories that, with your parents permission, you could 'upcycle' using your creative talents into a new item of clothing or something completely different to give it a new lease of life? 	VE Day Music Watch and listen to the Horrible Histories VE Day song Click to listen to some more traditional war time songs as well as the links below. Maybe you could play some of these tracks at your 'Stay at Home' street party. We'll Meet Again Run Rabbit Run Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy Hang Out the Washing on the Siegfried Line Roll Out the Barrel
Reading Do you have any stories at home you can share with red, white or blue in the title e.g. Little Red Riding Hood I Love You Blue Kangaroo Snow White and the Seven Dwarves	Art and Craft Activities Details for these activities can be found in the Home School area of the School website in the VE Day folder:  VE Day medals made from salt dough Make a handprint poppy or watch How to Paint a Poppy	World War 2 Recipes Why not make or bake some of your own goodies for your Stay at Home Street Party using some of the authentic recipes in the Home School area of the Junior section of the School website. Will it be eggless sponge, Anzac biscuits, trench cake, raisin crisps???
