

History Walking Tour of Your Local Town

Follow a walking tour of your town's history - or create your own! Spend some time walking your town or village, and stop to read the information boards that tell you about local landmarks. You'll find some towns have walks available online, such as this one for Berwick:

or this John Muir themed walk in Dunbar:

Those students in school could research the history of different parts of the Longridge Towers site, and walk the grounds.
